

First Grade Teacher Opportunity

St. Philip's Academy is an exceptional learning community empowering children to become life-long learners and faithful adults. We are a new independent school grounded in the Episcopal school tradition of excellence and faith. Yet at the same time we leverage innovations in learning and technology to develop truly exceptional 21st century leaders.

We seek an experienced energetic instructor to become our initial 1st grade teacher for the 2012-2013 school year. A strong candidate will be familiar with effective learning strategies for teaching basic to advanced skills in reading, writing, mathematics, science and social studies thematic units. The candidate should be proficient in planning and implementing age appropriate instructional activities for a variety of learning styles and needs. An ability to integrate technologies such as the iPad into the curriculum is required.

The candidate will be expected to spiritually mentor children and model a life of gracious faith. They must work cooperatively with young children, other faculty, and Academy parents. Effective communication and problem-solving skills are critical. Prior teaching experience is preferred.

Those interested in joining the Academy faculty should send a letter of interest and a resume or C.V. to staff@SPAfrisco.org Electronic submissions only. Deadline: 1/30/12
