

Middle School English Teacher

Trinity Episcopal School seeks applications for a full-time English teacher for the 2010-2011 school year.

Responsibilities include: Curriculum planning, implementing instruction, and executing effective classroom management strategies. The teacher is expected to communicate with parents throughout the year through regular correspondence, conferences, and grade reporting periods. The teacher will also act as an Advisor to a small group of students, providing guidance and support to both the students and their families. He/She will work closely with grade level team members, specialists, administrators, and other colleagues to ensure that all students make academic and social progress in accordance with our school's mission and core values.

Required Qualifications: Applicants must have a bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited school, excellent character, and a proven record of outstanding classroom teaching. Excellent writing skills and very strong verbal communication skills are expected. Some training and/or experience with reading and writing workshop is preferred. Ability to be a collaborative and positive member of a faculty is required. A desire to teach in an Episcopal school is important, though we embrace community members of all backgrounds and faiths.

At Trinity, our teachers

- seek knowledge of current instructional theories as a commitment to understanding and professional growth
- demonstrate a vast repertoire of effective and engaging instructional strategies that meet the needs of all students
- hold high – but not uniform – standards for/expectations of all students
- maximize instructional minutes
- model, teach, and expect age-appropriate disciplined behaviors in a way that is mission-consistent and respectful
- meaningfully and personally engage with all students
- actively support colleagues
- positively and actively contribute to the life of the school
- collaborate with parents in the best interest of the students
- understand and respect the principal qualities of an Episcopal school
- respect and seek understanding in all facets of diversity

To Apply: Letters of application should be sent by email to employment@trinitykids.com. Applications will be reviewed upon receipt and accepted until the position is filled.
