

Professional Opportunity: Fourth Grade Homeroom Teacher
All Saints' Episcopal Day School
Phoenix, Arizona

All Saints' Episcopal Day School, in Central Phoenix, is seeking a Lower School fourth grade teacher beginning in the fall of 2019. The candidate for this full-time position will join an exceptional and talented faculty and will work with students who are bright, motivated, and engaging.

Qualifications

A qualified candidate should have a Bachelor's degree in elementary education (advanced study and/or Master's degree is preferred) and at least two years of upper elementary classroom teaching experience. Creativity, passion for learning, and a positive attitude are desired as well as the ability to maintain a structured learning environment within a student-centered classroom. Because the opening will be for a fourth grade teaching position, the ideal candidate will have experience at this grade level or those immediately adjacent. Familiarity with the Reading and Writing Workshop models of instruction are also desired.

Additionally, he or she must have strong collaborative skills and be able to work closely with colleagues on curriculum development and instructional planning. The candidate will be expected to regularly participate in professional development and program improvement, be available to support students and parents before and after school, and may be assigned other duties by the Head of School.

Application Process and Materials

Please submit a cover letter and resume to employment@allsaints.org or deliver materials to 6300 N. Central Avenue during normal business hours. Consideration of all candidates will take place until an offer is made and accepted.
