

Title: Early and Lower School Teacher (position begins August, 2022)

All Saints Episcopal School seeks an experienced and enthusiastic Early Learning and Lower School teacher to guide our young students as they develop a culture of curiosity to imagine and create a better world. The ideal candidate will enjoy working collaboratively with other team members to provide and maintain a nurturing environment with lessons and activities to meet the children's cognitive, emotional, social and physical needs. A positive attitude and an appreciation for the unique qualities for the age group are essential.

The ideal candidate should:

- A bachelor's degree with a concentration in elementary education, with an advanced degree preferred
- Preferred three years of teaching experience, ideally in an independent school environment
- A passion for working with children, while demonstrating knowledge of best practices as an innovator
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- A mastery of developmentally-appropriate instructional strategies
- Enthusiasm for working in an academic environment that ignites passions to impact our world

Compensation and benefits are consistent with other area independent schools and adjusted based on the candidate's qualifications. Interested persons should send a letter of interest, resumé, a completed employee application (found on the school website, www.all-saints.org) and educational philosophy to Mr. Kyle Edgemon, Assistant Head of School for Student and Faculty Experience, at employment@all-saints.org.

All Saints Episcopal School:

Established in 1976, All Saints Episcopal School serves students from age 3 through 12th grade. This dynamic community finds its roots in the beauty, history, and heritage of East Texas, but believes the future is to prepare its students to live lives of significance and service in the world. As a school of inquiry, innovation, and impact, we design innovative programs that allow students to collaborate with curiosity, find passions, and share these powerful experiences in an authentic learning environment. All Saints faculty are dedicated to "Igniting Passions to Impact Our World" by preparing students to become leaders equipped with a mindset for problem-solving, adaptability, empathy, curiosity and collaboration - necessary skills to succeed in college and in life. Graduates matriculate to some of finest colleges and universities across the country, ready to pursue their passions in life.

Our beautiful 150 acre campus is the perfect setting for learning. The All Saints Chapel welcomes all visitors to the campus and serves as an elegant symbol of our spiritual pillar. Additionally, we have leveraged our spaces to be transformative environments that make the most of each learning opportunity. Over the last 6 years we have added Maker Spaces, the Lower School Collaboratory, the Lower School Learning Farm, the Outdoor Learning Center, the STEM and Robotics Lab, the innovative Center for Innovation, the Science Explorium, the Early Learning / Lower School Learning Villages, and Vaughn Hall Arts Center which distinguish our school among other independent schools. These spaces continue the tradition of providing the very best facilities and educational experiences for our faculty and students.

The school has grown to be considered to be a leader among independent schools across the country. We have been recognized as a "Spotlight School" by Lausanne Learning Institute and "Innovator Campus" by the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS). All Saints is the only school in East Texas accredited by the Independent School Association of the Southwest and a NAIS member. In addition, the school is accredited by the Southwestern Association of Episcopal Schools and is a member of the National Association of Episcopal Schools.

All Saints Episcopal School administers its personnel, academic, extracurricular and tuition assistance programs without regard to gender, race, religion, ethnicity or national origin.
